"PREHISTORIC MAN"
Hysterical History
One Reel Comedy

A primitive barber shop had two barbers, Fearnot Flinthatchet and Faintheart Lovejoy; the old proprietor and his manicurist daughter, Cutie Cuticle, who used a grindstone for a nail file.

Faintheart appealed to Cutie, but Fearnot was bolder and carried her kicking to his cave. Faintheart consulted Ala Gazem, a bewhiskered magician who looked into the future and showed Faintheart how in civilized society he would battle for the same lady, against the same bold bozo, and win.

When he comes out of the reverie, he hops in on Fearnot's cave where the latter is entertaining the lady in question. Faintheart takes a huge club and bounces it off Fearnot's dome- repeatedly without producing any much needed effect.

Then Fearnot arises, takes his trusty bludgeon and taps Faintheart but once. The latter keels and Fearnot resumes his seat with total indifference.
